TESTIMONIALS (To take the place of testimonials now on the web site, and added at the end of the retreat description. Please give suggestions for where these fit.)

"Thank you so much for helping me through what I felt were insurmountable issues. Your kindness, generosity of spirit, and knowledge base are to be emulated. I can't say enough; I loved every minute of this week." D.B.

"I appreciate your deep knowledge and wisdom. Your handling of the group process is superb. I learn so much just being in your presence. Thank you!" C. McC.

"Your calm presence and steady soft approach made this week a real joy."

"Connie is an excellent teacher, storyteller, and guide. She brings vast knowledge and laughter to the workshops. There was intensity as well as humor. I felt safe and well cared for. This is a must for anyone seeking to expand their consciousness, play with horses, see astounding natural beauty in wild untouched nature, and develop new friendships. My heart is full. Thank you!" C.T.

"The Dreamwork was amazing. I loved the process. Connie is a true healer. I appreciate her organization and the activities she provided for a full week. Her caring and kindness is reflected in everything she does--truly an excellent group leader. Her great knowledge and experience made this retreat a real learning and growing experience for me."

"I loved the horseback riding, time on the mountain, the variety of dreamwork, especially the dream drama, and the evening ride up in the hills. The afternoon off was perfect, the timing of the rides, and the gatherings."
